

Mark Torre

Nominated for Election to the Governance Council

Mark's Goals for DFLC:

Help members grow in Christ and attract others to build a relationship with Christ centered in God's grace!

Mark has been serving on the DFLC Governance Council since being appointed to fill a vacancy on the Council in April, 2019. Mark and Sandra Torre began attending DFLC in 2009 with their sons Matthew and Gregory. They transferred membership from Lutheran Church of the Master, Phoenix, in 2012, and have since celebrated the births of their daughter Madeleine and son Joshua.

Mark's legal education and 10 years of consultant experience analyzing complex litigation matters to assist firms and clients in creative immediate future choices and long-term strategic planning have prepared him for continued service on the Governance Council.

Mark's first and foremost commitment to keep his faith at the forefront of all he does is the essence of Servant Leadership, the distinguishing requirement for DFLC's Governance Council.

Mark has served as a volunteer speaker to thousands of high school students about making good personal choices. He has also put his faith into action packing food for St. Mary's Food Bank and Feed My Starving Children, as well as assistance to the homeless. He has also served as a member of the Stinson, LLP, legal firm's Charity Committee assisting with organizing others and personally serving in food drives, volunteer work, and fund raising.

In addition to serving on the Governance Council at DFLC, Mark serves as an usher, and has assisted with DFLC's past annual book fair.

Mark holds a Juris Doctor degree from Harvard Law School (1998) and a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science with a minor in Philosophy from Arizona State University (1995).
